Case No. 3:23-cv-01097-CL

DECLARATION OF NICHOLAS
EARL WALDBILLIG

I, Nicholas Earl Waldbillig, declare under penalty of perjury as follows:

1. I make this declaration based upon my own personal knowledge. If called to testify to the following facts, I would, and could, competently do so.
2. I am one of the named petitioners and proposed class representatives in a class action suit against the State of Oregon. I make this declaration in support of petitioners' motion for class certification.
3. I have been informed of the responsibilities of a class representative.
4. In general terms, I understand the claims in the case and am keeping informed about the progress of the case.
5. I am able and willing to serve as a class representative. I have no known conflicts with any members of the class.
6. If appointed, I will stay informed about the case. I will keep in contact with my lawyers. I will put the interests of the class first.
7. I have been facing criminal charges, in two cases, in Deschutes County Circuit Court since about March 2, 2023, when my previous convictions were vacated because of a non-unanimous jury verdict, and I do not have a lawyer representing me on those cases. I signed a release agreement on or about April 19, 2023, requiring me to wear a GPS ankle monitor and pay $380 a month for GPS monitoring, and $7000 was held for bail. Trial is set for November 28, 2023, and all suppression motions were due back on August 25, 2023. Since I have not been provided a lawyer the trial will have to be pushed off and I will have to pay more in GPS monitoring fees and the $7000 for bail will have to be held longer.

I hereby declare that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief, and that I understand it is made for use as evidence in court and is subject to penalty for perjury.

Dated this 1st day of September, 2023.

Respectfully submitted,

Nicholas Earl Waldbillig
